Faith Talks

Choosing a direction, purpose, or mission in life can be hard. But once you've chosen where you want to go, it's much easier to figure out how you're going to get there, because now you can set your priorities and decide what's most important. Remembering our baptism daily invites us to ask the question, "What do I want to do with my life today?" And when Jess invites us to follow him, he also wants us to ask, "What does God want me to do with the rest of my life?" May God guide you in discovering your mission as you live the baptismal journey of faith.

Take time to answer each question in writing. Then take turns sharing & listening to each other as you share your responses.

What is This?

Martin Luther quotes the Lord's Prayer, "Your will be done, on earth as in heaven," and then asks: "What is this?" His answer? "God's good and gracious will comes about without our prayer, but we ask in this prayer that it may also come about in and among us... And God's will is done whenever God strengthens us and keeps us steadfast in his Word and in faith until the end of our lives."

To want God's will to be done on earth as in heaven means that we are willing to...

Try to give an example of how God's good and gracious will can come about in us and among us.
