Mary and Jospheh Review:

2. Why did Mary and Joseph go to Bethlehem? (Luke 2:1-5)

Who is John the Baptist:

In Luke 1, we read the story of Mary's relative Elizabeth and her husband Zechariah. Much like the story of the Old Testament with Abraham and Sarah, Elizabeth and Zechariah were older in age and had no children. God sent an angel to tell Zechariah that he and Elizabeth would have a son and his name would be John.

Fill in the blanks/Answer the questions:

- Luke 1:17 "He will be a man with the spirit and power of _____ . He will prepare the _____ for the coming of the _____ .
- Zechariah found this hard to believe and because he doubted the angel, for a period of time he could not _____ . (Luke 1:20)
- John became a preacher. Where was one of the main places where he preached? (Luke 3:3) _____

- What did John tell people they should do? (Luke 3:3)

John was an interesting guy. He was known to wear camel's hair and to eat locusts (ew!) and wild honey. He had a following of people that he preached to. His main job was to announce that his relative Jesus' ministry was about to start, and people needed to get ready. His main message is a very popular part of the Bible. Fill in the blanks from Luke 3:4-5 (similar to Isaiah 40) _____ the _____ for the Lord's coming! Clear the road for him! The _____ will be filled, and the _____ and _____ made level. The curves will be straightened, and the rough places made smooth.

Mary, Joseph and Jesus Escape to Egypt

According to Matthew's gospel, after the Wise Men left and they did not tell King Herod where to find the newborn king, an angel came to Joseph in a dream and told him to leave the area because King Herod wanted to kill every baby boy born under the age of 2. The angel told Mary and Joseph to take baby Jesus and go to Egypt. Have you ever thought about the fact that Jesus spent his early childhood living in Egypt? He was multi-lingual! Later, after King Herod died, Joseph, Mary, and Jesus would be told to move back to Nazareth.
