This is a good example of how relationships and expectations with our parents can be challenging.

Parents & Students Discuss Together

Parents please note: this can be a great opportunity to let your kids know that they can talk to you about anything, and you will always believe them and love them. But this can also be an awkward conversation and uncomfortable for your student.*

On the blank paper (with boxes) below, you will see it is divided into four sections. Parents, we invite you to do this activity with your child:

In the top left corner, write or draw in response to this question:

What is the biggest / craziest thing that you've ever asked of your parents?

In the top right corner, write or draw in response to this question:

What was your Parent's response? Were they right?

Share these two squares with each other.

Then, in the bottom left corner, write or draw in response to this question:

What was the biggest / craziest / or most important thing you ever asked God for?

Finally, in the bottom right corner, write or draw in response to this question:

What was God's response? How did you feel about the response?

Share these two squares each other.

Please send these pages with your make up work.

Share your answers with each other. Talk about what keeps us from being honest with each other and how keeping secrets can hurt relationships.

Write here about what you learned:

Learn:

Prayer in its simplest form is talking to God. We can come to God like a friend, to share about what is happening in our lives. But Jesus calls on us to talk to God differently, as a Parent - Our Father.

Review the Introduction petition from Small Catechism

Our Father in heaven.

What is this?

With these words God wants to attract us, so that we believe he is truly our Father, and we are truly his children, in order that we may ask him boldly and with complete confidence, just as loving children ask their loving father.

Parent and Student discuss together and write down your responses in the space provided:

God is our Father, and we are God's children.

* What does that relationship look like?

*How is it the same / different then our relationship with our earthly parents?

Compare and contrast the relationship of God as our Father in heaven and our earthly parents

*Why does Jesus ask us to pray to "our" father and not "my" father? What is the difference?

Read Isaiah 9: 6

Write down the names used here in relationship to God?

Read Exodus 3: 13 - 15

Write down the names used here in relationship to God?

*Why not use one of these names to pray? Why call on God as “Father?”

“Father” suggests that there is an intimate relationship between God and ourselves. God created us, we have a place in God’s family, God has concern for our wellbeing. We have a deep connection to God, that cannot be broken or denied no matter how we behave.

Martin Luther reminds us that we should come to God with confidence - boldly, knowing that God will listen with love.

* Do you talk to God? When? Where? What does that look like?

God wants us to see him as his Father in Heaven. God wants us to come to him in times of Thanks, Adoration, Confession, for Others & Self (TACOS). As Jesus did.

Bible and Write responses:

Read Matthew 26: 36-44

What part of the TACO prayer did Jesus pray?

Read John 11: 39 - 44

What part of the TACO prayer did Jesus pray?)

TALK:

Parents and Students discuss together

As our Father, God is calling us to ask boldly for everything in prayer.

Does that mean that we always get what we want?*

If we don't get everything we want, does that mean that God doesn't love us?*

Do we talk to a friend as we talk to a parent? What is the difference in how we talk to each?*

What do we share with friends that we don't with parents?*

What do we share with our parents that we don't with friends?*

Who do you trust more? Why?*

How do we see God in our lives? As parent? As friend? Why?*
