Share your highs / lows for the week or since you last met.

Faith Talks

If we're a part of a church, we're expected to use our talents and gifts to serve God and others. Why? Because to love involves service to others. Jesus spent his life loving and serving God and others. If we decide to follow His example, we need to be willing to love and serve others, too. It's a big commitment! But when we do serve, we discover the meaning of love, and it's worth it!
