1. What sticks out to you in this text?

---

In the early church they practiced baptism from the start.
Baptism set a person apart as a Christian and united Christians together.
Most were adults and baptized around Easter.

Families started to be baptized, and this was the beginning of infant baptism.
By 500 AD most people in the Roman Empire were born into Christian families so infant baptism was a common practice
Nothing a child can do to earn baptism - God's action, not ours that counts.
God makes the first move.

Read Ephesians 4: 5 - 6

What way is the right way?

(Trick question-all of it - Not what we do or how we do it, it is what God does for us.)

The Promises of Baptism

Here are the promises that your parents made when you were baptized.

- To live among God's faithful people
- Bring them to the word of God and the holy supper
- Teach them the Lord's Prayer, the Creed, and the Ten Commandments
- Place in their hands the holy scripture
- Nurture them in faith and prayer so they can learn to trust God, proclaim Christ through word and deed and care for others and the world God made, and work for justice and peace.

The Affirmation of Baptism Promises (Made on Affirmation of Baptism Sunday Fall of 9th grade year):

- To live among God's faithful people
- To hear the word of God and share in the Lord's supper
- To proclaim the good news of God in Christ through word and deed
- To serve all people, following the example of Jesus,
- To strive for justice and peace in all the earth.

1. Circle the similarities in each and underline the differences in each.

2. Write examples of how to follow each of the Affirmation of Baptism promises.

Statement of Intentions

In our small group time this week, each member of the small group wrote a statement of intention. It is how they would like to apply what we are learning in the group, class, activities, and the church into the world.

Please write out your statement of intention-a way you would like to live based on some of the things we have learned so far this year. Be specific.

Examples:

"I will try to forgive those that do me wrong without reservation."

"I want to help people in my school that I see that are being bullied by reaching out and being a friend."

"I will do my best to listen to my parents and do as they ask of me."

---

+ PRAY:

Prayer together considering your high/lows for the week and your statement of intent.

+ BLESS:

Offer each other a blessing: "God's love and blessings are upon you!"
